

We seed your prosperity...

YOUR FIRST STEP WITH US FOR A BETTER FUTURE

Ar Tarim Internship Program

WELCOME TO THE COLOURFUL POTATO WORLD

Your Entry To The Potato World

You will be introduced to AR TARIM's entire working groups and learn how to operate under field conditions and in our total production system as such (Internship).

Local Trainings

At our premises and within a period of 8 weeks you will receive a deep insight into the planning and the production of potato seeds. The following plan is an example and can vary according to the candidates prior experience and the season he intends to start. The activities within the plan will be supported by trainings and seminars (Active role in AR TARIM's production plan)

Qualifications Desired

University Student; Good communication and team work skills; Open to new cultures; Elevated problem-solving and organizational skills; Analytical Skills, English speakers preferred.

Sample Program Flow (Agricultural Engineer)

1. Week: Introduction to AR TARIM and its varieties.
2. Week: Equipment usage.
3. Week: Irrigation Planning and Set-up.
4. Week: Fertilizer and Pesticide Treatments.
5. Week: Control of Diseases.
6. Week: Field Controls and Rouging.
7. Week: Haulm Destruction.
8. Week: Harvest Preparations.

After the training period the successful candidate is eligible to take part in our Trainee Program accustomed to his/hers areas of capabilities.

Application

If this program is of your interest and you fulfill the entry requirements we will be glad to receive your application. Please send your application to the e-mail below: humanresources@artarim.com
OR apply on our website in the career section. www.artarim.com

An Agrico and Europlant Company

Ar Tarım Internship Program

If you have any questions about our program, please contact us at 0352 330 3032.

For more information visit www.artarim.com